OLD MONEY TALK

Put a * next to phrases you say and think a lot

I can't afford it.

How much is it? (*to find out if you like it or not)

Money doesn't grow on trees

There's only so much to go around.

I hate my bills. I hate money.

Money doesn't buy happiness, so it's ok

That's expensive.

I'm broke

I'm in debt

NEW MONEY TALK to try on

I choose not to buy that right now.

Try to see if you like/love something before you look at the price. If you love it, need it, or desire it... you deserve it!

Yes it does, it's paper. There's an infinite supply of money.

Bills are a sign that people trust me with money. My bills are worth it.

Electricity that runs my washer, dryer, wifi + charges my computer and phone- all soo so worth it.

That's a luxury.

I am paying off past expenditures

AFFIRMATIONS

There is always enough.

I am enough.

I deserve the best and I accept the best NOW!

There is an infinite supply of money in the Universe

I love and appreciate money. And what I appreciate.. appreciates!

I serve, I deserve

I am worthy of massive compensation

I can easily afford all of my needs AND all of my desires

My income is always increasing

Money is attracted to me.

Money easily finds me

Everything is working out in my favor
